CARR-184 Abraham Shriner House
3468 Uniontown Road

According to Miss Ella Beam's notes to Major McIlhenny's journal published in the Carroll Record during 1914, 3468 Uniontown Road was constructed in the early 1850s for Abraham Shriner. Shriner purchased the property that included 3472 Uniontown Road and a tanyard from Moses Shaw in 1837. Abraham Shriner's son, John, operated the tanyard from a two-story currier's shop that stood between the two houses. (A currier was a person who curried, or prepared, leather.) When Abraham Shriner decided to retire from his farm, he had this brick house built. The house is a superb example of mid-nineteenth century brick architecture. The three-bay main facade is symmetrically arranged with a central entrance. The main facade has Flemish-bond brickwork and wood lintels with cornerblocks. The cornice has a double sawtooth pattern of brick. The porch with its turned posts, odd-shaped brackets and spindle railing is a later addition. You might also note the striking cast-iron gate on the east side of the house. The retention of the brick sidewalk in sections of this part of town also hearkens back to an earlier period of Uniontown's history.
